

MORE INFORMATION & SUPPORT

Just Like Us has a range of resources and programmes to help schools become inclusive and welcoming for everyone. They have free resources for School Diversity Week, which is coming up in June.

Search for: Just Like Us

Pop'n'Olly is an LGBT+ education resource for parents, carers & teachers. Their website includes links to books, videos, and blogs that all support inclusive learning.

Search for: Pop'n'Olly

The Proud Trust has a section of its website dedicated to trusted adults of LGBT+ children & young people. Here you can find a range of useful information & resources.

Search for: The Proud Trust trusted adults

Common Sense Media provides children, parents & educators with trustworthy ratings & reviews for a wide range of content. Simply search "LGBT characters" for a series of videos outlining diverse TV shows, films, games & books. All age ratings are provided alongside.

Search for: Common Sense Media

VotesforSchools has a blog all about protected characteristics in education - what they are, how they are incorporated into the classroom, and what schools' responsibilities are.

Search for: VotesforSchools protected characteristics

Please Note: If you have any concerns, please speak to your school's Designated Safeguarding Lead.