

MORE INFORMATION & SUPPORT

UK Safer Internet Centre has a designated area of their website just for parents & carers (as well as one for grandparents!). There is also further information about Safer Internet Day 2024.

Search for: UK Safer Internet Centre parents & carers

Internet Matters is the go-to place for questions or concerns about the online world, with articles arranged according to issue and age group. There is also advice on setting controls.

Search for: Internet Matters

NSPCC has a range of guides and resources to help keep children safe online. There is also a helpline, which can be reached on 0808 800 5000 (10am-8pm, weekdays). Alternatively, you can send an email or complete an online form anytime.

Search for: NSPCC online safety

ThinkUKnow (part of CEOP) has a variety of information about all things online safety. This includes Home Safety Activities and how to report any concerns for a child.

Search for: Think U Know parents

Common Sense Media is designed to help parents, carers & educators to get a better picture of how appropriate a range of different media is for children & young people. There are media ratings for a range of TV shows, films, games & platforms, as well as classroom resources and research.

Search for: Common Sense Media

Please Note: If you have any concerns, please speak to your school's Designated Safeguarding Lead.