Message from our Head Teacher

It's that time of year again when we look forward to the children showing off and sharing with you all the talent that we have at Lanesfield. Everyone is practising hard. Please remember that you need a ticket for all who attend. We would discourage you from bringing younger siblings as they can often find it hard to sit and listen which is then unfair to the children who have worked so hard and are looking forward to their special moment.

Santa is in school this week, lots of children will have the pleasure of seeing him and our super grotto provided by our very own Elf, Mrs Cunneen. A big thank you to her for all of her hard work

Just 6 more get-ups - we are aware the children (and staff) are getting tired as it has been a very long term. Early nights are the order of the season to ensure we reach the end of term with good attendance, good health and good tidings - ready to enjoy this special family time together.
