

MORE INFORMATION & SUPPORT

If you think you or someone you know may have been a victim of a cyber crime, please report it to Action Fraud. Their number is 0300 123 2040. If you or somebody else is in immediate danger, please call 999.

Search for: Action Fraud

To report suspicious emails, simply forward them to report@phishing.gov.uk. To report suspicious texts, contact 7726. For more advice on reporting, visit the National Crime Agency website.

Search for: National Crime Agency cyber crime

The National Cyber Security Centre (NCSC) has a range of practical & easy-to-follow advice on their website. This includes how to deal with common issues and how to protect your data & devices.

Search for: NCSC Cyber Aware

For specific tips as a parent, guardian or trusted adult, the Metropolitan Police website can help. They outline some of the best ways to protect your children and your wider household from cyber crime.

Search for: Met Police cyber crime tips

The National Crime Agency also runs The Cyber Choices programme. This aims to help people use their cyber skills in a legal way, fully informed about the choices they are making and the implications of these. The programme webpage has information for young people, parents & carers, and teaching & safeguarding staff.

Search for: NCA Cyber Choices programme

Please Note: If you have any concerns, please speak to your school's Designated Safeguarding Lead.